PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

Name a Seat

You can pay tribute to a family member, a friend, or a special occasion by naming a seat in their honor in the historic Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center. You can name a seat in the Balcony ($500), Mezzanine ($1,500), Orchestra ($2,500), or Prime Orchestra ($5,000). An engraved brass plaque will be affixed to the arm of your chosen seat(s). Seat pledges can be paid in installments over time and are tax deductible.

“The Berkshires, and especially the Mahaiwe, were important to my mom and the Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center is important to me. Now I have a special place where I can visit her.”

— Debi R. Feinman, Bravo Circle Member

“I am delighted to have named seats in this splendid theater, and hope that others join me to ensure the future of this wonderful cultural center, and invaluable addition to life here.”

— Roberta Silman, Bravo Circle Member

In 2005, a century after the Vaudeville-era Mahaiwe Theater was constructed, the curtain rose on the Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center. Lovingly restored – including reconstruction of the original 1930s marquee, a Great Barrington landmark – the theater is listed on the National Registry of Historic Places.

Today, the Mahaiwe is a non-profit, year-round presenter of world-class music, from Broadway and Rock to Bluegrass and Jazz, as well as dance, drama, comedy, classic films, and HD broadcasts from the National Theatre of London and the Metropolitan Opera. Hundreds of the nation's most sought-after performers have graced the Mahaiwe stage, and the Mahaiwe's community engagement and performing arts education programs reach thousands of families and students throughout the Berkshire region.

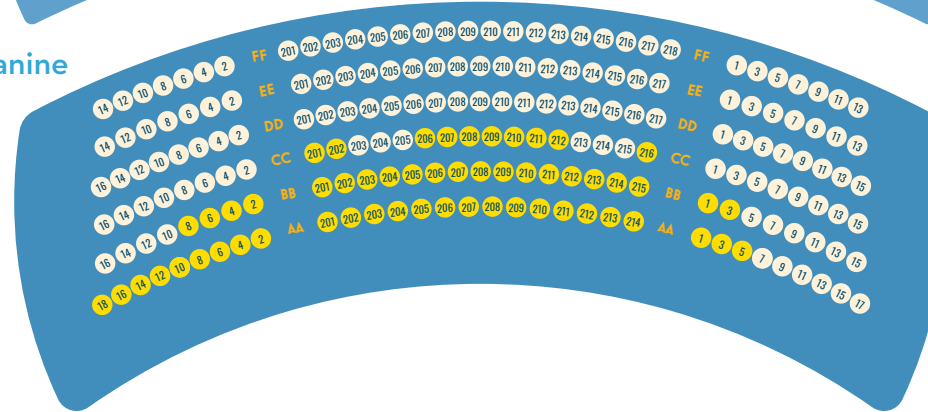

You can be part of the Mahaiwe's story by naming a seat.
