You could travel to venues throughout Europe and America to attend a gig by Samara Joy. Or you can enjoy the 24-year-old superstar here on Castle Street at the Mahaiwe Gala. Samara’s velvety voice and preternatural artistry summon up the legends of jazz as she brings her timeless, irresistible sound to classics several times older than she is. She won Grammy Awards in 2023 for Best New Artist and Jazz Vocal Album, and for Improvised Jazz solo earlier this year. “She is causing some jazz folk to wonder whether there really is such a thing as reincarnation,” said San Francisco Classical Voice. “Her agile upper range is like that of Ella Fitzgerald. Her swooping lower range resembles that of Sarah Vaughan. Striking a majestic stage presence, she exudes self-confidence and poise when she dips in and out of her ranges in the same song, as if she has been singing for decades and decades.” Do not miss this opportunity to experience a legend in the making when she’s joined by eight superb instrumentalists at the Mahaiwe.
